

The height of GOOD TASTE

It's easy to get sidetracked on a visit to our Food Halls, with fresh produce that is so vibrant and varied, teas and coffees that smell so heavenly, and a captivating collection of confectionery. But try to stay focused – it's Christmas after all, and there's no better time to go in search of something ultra-special for yourself or the foodie in your life. To help, we have compiled the Harrods 100, our pick of the greatest culinary experiences you can enjoy with us. As well as pulling out our signature icons, we have split the list into five foodie types: The Purist is someone who likes their flavours simple and clean; The Connoisseur is an expert gourmand on the hunt for specific quality foods; while the rebellious Hedonist and The Sweet Tooth heartily ignore all sensibilities (and, indeed, calories) in search of the most indulgent foods. Finally, there's The Lazy Cook (there's one in all of us); it is this type we are perhaps speaking to the most, presenting the broadest array of tempting foods ready to buy and serve, that will dazzle your guests without you having to lift a finger. So, the question is, which food personality are you?

On Thursday 5th December, you are invited to a celebration of the Food Halls, where our producers will be on hand to showcase a selection of their finest food and drink. Visit xxxxxx xxxxx to find out more.
